

ANNOUNCEMENT

Professional Data Systems Awarded eClinicalWorks Preferred IT Vendor Status

WHITE PLAINS, NY, May 25th, 2010 – Professional Data Systems (PDS), a leading medical IT service provider, has recently earned Preferred Hardware Vendor status from eClinicalWorks (eCW). Based upon an impressive track record of successful eCW customer installations, PDS has become one of the first companies to be selected for their Preferred Hardware Vendor Program.

“We are delighted and honored to be recognized by eCW for our commitment in providing high quality medical IT support to the healthcare community” said Tom Telesca, president of PDS. “eCW recognizes the value we add to our clients. We consistently deliver on commitments to our customers earning us a solid reputation as the leader in medical IT solutions.”

Mr. Telesca also commented “PDS’s knowledge of eCW’s requirements is comprehensive so we quickly and accurately identify and install the equipment that meets eCW’s specifications. We stay up-to-date on changes in their software and how it impacts hardware requirements. PDS knows how to implement EMRs and ensures the startup process is successful.”

PDS completed an extensive training program at eClinicalWorks headquarters in Westborough, MA to obtain its preferred status. In order to maintain it, the company will continue to implement, support, and manage eCW installations while maintaining an average rating of four-out-of-five on eCW's annual customer service surveys.
